

ON POINT Sept. 2016

Indian Summer is Back Again! I thought for a moment there we weren't going to have a Summer and here it is. So grateful to live in Point Richmond. This time of year is always so lovely. We absolutely love the warm transition to Fall. The sounds of kids getting settled into a new school year, football games, festivals and elections. Sorry if that last item wasn't as much fun as the rest. Although, I still contend that it is great to live in such a country where we have the opportunity to vote, even if the candidates and propositions aren't perfect. It's another chance for us to perfect our most precious Union. So make sure you register and if you need a ride to the polling place give me a call.

It's Finally Here! I have been in planning mode for Picnic in the Point for the past 5 months. Come on out on Saturday, September 24, 12pm to 5pm (see the flyer enclosed). We are looking for volunteers to help on the day of the event setting up from 8:30am to 11:30am then take down from 5pm to 7pm.

PRNC MEMBERSHIP DUES—are still one of the best deals in town! Dues are $10/individual, $15/household. Dues for 2016-2017 are due now! If you want to vote and be part of the solution become a member today!

See you all around the Point!
